

ORDINANCE 2024-08-27-001

WHEREAS Indiana Code requires the Kosciusko County Recorder to charge recording and copying fees for the recordation and copying of documents; and

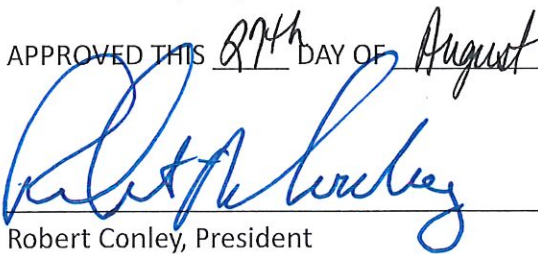

WHEREAS Kosciusko County Government Departments, Council, and Commissioners from time to time copy and record documents for county business with the Kosciusko County Recorder; and

WHEREAS the departments within the City of Warsaw Government from time to time copy documents for city business; and

WHEREAS the Kosciusko County Board of Commissioners believes that it is in the best interests of Kosciusko County to allow such recording and copying for Kosciusko County and copying for the City of Warsaw without charging such recording and/or copying fees.

NOW THEREFORE, be it hereby adopted and accepted that the Kosciusko County Recorder shall not charge recording or copying fees to Kosciusko County Government Departments, Council, or Commissioners, or copy fees for departments in the City of Warsaw Government (except in the case of an extraordinary request).

APPROVED THIS 27th DAY OF August, 2024.
